

Theatre Arts Officer Profile

Honest and Genuine

- Fair and honest approach to their role
- Self-motivated and committed to succeed; will often push themselves beyond their limits
- Consistently leads by example and displays great pride in every task undertaken

Engaging

- Has a genuine passion for the team, clients and students; drives the Company culture in all aspects of their work
- Enthusiastic and has the ability to positively influence the team around them
- Positive mind-set; always creates a fun environment for the clients, students and team to work and learn in

Accountable

- Extremely hardworking and committed to driving the Company forward
- Cool, calm and collected, and can handle juggling many different tasks at once
- Quick to react to different situations and will resolve problems efficiently

Planning

- Strong family values at their core enable them to build genuine relationships with the clients, students and team
- Drives and delivers an engaging programme of learning through effective planning to provide the very best standard of learning experiences
- Encourages feedback and evaluation and is able to recover any negative situations

Together

- Builds effective and strong working relationships, and this is the key to their success
- Drives a culture of team work by being hands-on and working together
- Approachable and always listens to the team, removing any barriers they identify